Course Level 201: Heart Healing Essentials

Learn the essential prayer counseling principles that will help you discover the path to healing AND equip you to effectively guide others throughout their healing journey.

Do you wake up in the morning knowing that God has more for you and the people that you love, but you can't put your finger on what that is? In today's world, so many people feel stuck and hopeless, unable to create effective and lasting change in their lives. This Heart Healing Essentials course contains some of the important foundational teachings that will empower you to break free.

God is in the business of transforming hearts. When we experience healing in our hearts we are able to walk fully and powerfully in our true identity; who He created us to be. This course will not only teach you how to overcome the things keeping you stuck, but also how to effectively "unstuck" others as well!

This course, which is open to Christians, will run over six weekends from January to June 2024 and each weekend there will be teaching on DVD. There are 25 lessons in all, plus some demonstrations. There will be times of worship, you will get hands-on experience in small groups and have lots of fellowship with others on the school.
